RELEVANT PROJECTS

Portfolio

Dec 2022 - Present

- Crafted from JS/HTML5/CSS3 and hosted on GitHub pages.
- Shows expertise in Web Development with Vanilla JavaScript, CSS, and HTML, and a general competency in programming.
- Not a specialized tech stack, such as MERN like my other project, as to show flexibility and adaptability to other skill sets.
- Proves I can craft a website or standalone app that can be applied to various stacks or projects.

Solitaire

Sept 2022 – Dec 2022

- A vanilla JS/HTML/CSS website created as a class project focusing on DevOps and team-coordination.
- Tasked as a coder for the solitaire reconstruction and was noted to be more proficient in the class.
- Site is hosted on my team-lead's github-pages profile, <https://mquitor.github.io>
